TASK – You are going to select a career from the list provided in class and use the internet and/or books provided to research your selected topic. Using the research, you will write a ONE-page paper (paragraph form), which will include the following information:

Written Paper:

Using your research, you will write a one page paper about the Medical Career you choose. You will need to include the following information:

- Job Title
- Duties on the job
- Type of Workplace
- Skills Required(math, reading, social)
- Education Required
- Pay Rate or Salary
- Job Outlook
- What appeals to me about the job (3)
- What doesn't appeal to me about the job (3)
- Why you choose this career

Your paper should include:

- Cover page with name, date and the career title (graphic or pic would be nice)
- One page typed on the career
- Typed, 1½ or double spaced, no larger than 13 font OR
- List of resources on a separate page
- At least two resources (interview counts as one), cited in MLA format
(Wikipedia can not count as one of the sources)

Submit the documents to me by sharing via Google Docs smithsj@rlschools.net

Imagine you are the Director of Human Resources for a Healthcare group, like Wellspan. Create a help wanted ad to be posted in the York Daily Record. It needs to include the job description, training/education, location of the job (work environment), salary potential and the positive attributes you are looking to fill an option position in the medical facility. Points = 10 pts
